Spotify Technology S.A. (SPOT) has experienced significant fluctuations in its stock price over recent years. After reaching an all-time low of $69.29 on November 4, 2022, the stock rebounded impressively, trading at all-time highs just two years later. This remarkable recovery can be attributed to factors such as cost-cutting measures and robust subscriber growth.

However, the stock has also faced periods of decline. For instance, in early 2022, SPOT lost nearly 25% of its value, a downturn partly linked to controversies
